Hi all,

I'm attaching the latest version of the IRIS website text for your review. FYI, we need to further consider where to place "IRIS enhancement" text that's included in this Word file (i.e., on the home page and in links). Maureen and I will circulate more on that shortly and seek input early next week, but I didn't want to hold up getting this out the door.

I'm also including a PowerPoint file with 2 graphics that we're proposing to include. Please note that we've taken some liberties with the 2009 process figure; not sure how far to go with revisions. The existing 2009 process figure is included to help you figure out what's changed. If you have other graphics (or alternatives to these graphics) that you'd like to propose adding to the website, please forward.

Finally, if you want a more interactive way to review the text, go to the following staging site (use LAN login and password). FYI -- The text in the Word file is somewhat more current than that on the website; edits to website text still need to be made, but we expect there will be more once the attached Word file gets more review!

Proposed deadlines....

- Goal -- please try to provide comments by next Wednesday (June 17) -- yes, I realize that's not much time!
- Firmer deadline -- comments by Friday (June 19).

Thanks!

Sue

P.S. thanks to those who submitted comments on the previous draft. I haven't incorporated all those comments where they conflicted or changed some text that I'd received from Samantha, but I'll flag those edits for those who I know plan to review this current draft.
